Consent to release of GP information

Primary Health Networks (PHN) collect GP information as part of the Shared Antenatal Care (SAC) program to facilitate GP participation in the program. Sydney North Health Network (SNHN) is requesting this information from you so that it can be made available to members of the public (including antenatal clinics, mothers to be and neighbouring PHNs) on its website. For the same purposes outlined above, SNHN may also provide this information to antenatal clinics and neighbouring PHNs through other mediums as needed. The Australian Privacy Principles and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) prohibit us from releasing this information without your consent. SNHN will not disclose your personal information to anybody else unless we are required to do so by law. Further, SNHN has a Privacy Policy that is available on its website and upon request.
