

Current Issues in Child Protection and Domestic Violence - Understanding the Impact of Trauma

Presenter: Carolyn Michelle Cousins

She has worked in the fields of child protection, domestic violence and mental health for almost 20 years, holding statutory, speciality and management posts in both Australia and the UK. She has Masters Degrees in Social Work and Adult Education.

Who: This is a free training for Service Providers within Northern Sydney

Learning Outcomes

- How to describe the neurobiology of trauma to families and children
- An overview of neurobiological research into trauma and neglect, its implications for children
- Recent Child Protection Legislation changes and their implications for practice
- The 'It Stops Here' Domestic violence reforms and their implications for practice

Date: 8th of December 2015

Time: 9.30am-5.00pm (Registration from 9.00am)

Location: Relationships Australia NSW Level 1 68 Waterloo Road Macquarie Park

Lunch provided. Bookings are essential

To register please email christinek@ransw.org.au by 26th of November 2015

Please include the name of workshop, your name, organisation and any dietary requirements.