

NSW Quitline referral pads now available to order online - March 2016

New NSW Quitline referral form and pads

New referral pads have been printed and can now be ordered in bulk online. We would appreciate your assistance in distributing the new referral pads to your stakeholders.

The improved NSW Quitline referral form has significant changes including:

- new branding
- a new fax number
- new contact details for ordering and different data collection fields.

Please dispose of the old referral forms/pads. The old referral form has been discontinued.

Please fax the referral form to 02 9698 2740.

The Cancer Institute NSW is working with the NSW Quitline to further improve the referral and feedback pathways to the NSW Quitline. We will continue to provide stakeholder updates about any changes.

Important:

- New NSW Quitline referral pads are printed and ready for distribution.
- The referral pads are available to order in bulk online.
- NSW Quitline referral form for health professionals must be faxed to 02 9698 2740.
- Other stakeholder resources are also available to order online.

Ordering NSW Quitline Stakeholder Resources

Stakeholders can now order NSW Quitline resources online.

Individuals needing smoking cessation support can continue to order resources from <https://www.icanquit.com.au/further-resources/quit-kit> and can download resources from <https://www.icanquit.com.au/further-resources/online-quit-kit>.

For further queries contact:

- Dianne Eggins, Prevention Portfolio Manager on Dianne.Eggins@cancerinstitute.org.au or
- Anita Dessaix, Manager, Prevention on (02) 8374 5639 or anita.dessaix@cancerinstitute.org.au

Working together to lessen the impact of cancer

