

PATIENT INFORMATION

SYDNEY NORTH REGION

A single point of access to PHN funded mental health services

THE MENTAL HEALTH TRIAGE

WHAT IS THE MENTAL HEALTH TRIAGE?

The Sydney North Primary Health Network (SNPHN) Mental Health Triage provides a central point of access to a range of treatment services for people experiencing mental health and/or alcohol and other drug issues at no cost or a subsidised cost.

Available services are listed on pgs 2-3.

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION IS REQUIRED?

When you consent for a referral to SNPHN-funded services, you will be asked to provide personal details including:

- Name
- Address
- Employment status
- Date of birth
- Marital status
- Diagnosis

Some services require a current Mental Health Treatment Plan and completed mental health assessment (K-10+, K-5 or SDQ) to be submitted with the referral.

YOUR INFORMATION

WHO CAN SEE MY INFORMATION?

Upon referral, your information will be viewed by:

- SNPHN Mental Health Triage staff
- The Commissioned service provider; and
- The mental health/alcohol & drugs professional who will be working with you

Some information (gender, date of birth and types of services used) is provided to the Commonwealth Department of Health for reporting purposes. However, this does not include identifying information such as your name, address or Medicare number.

HOW IS MY INFORMATION USED?

SNPHN is bound by the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 and the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000, which outlines the protection of your personal information. Your personal information will be stored in a secure database and kept confidential. It will not be released without your permission except:

- Where legally required.
- If a person's safety is at risk including yourself or others

We will make every attempt to speak with you before releasing your information.

Your GP can refer you to one of these services if you are seeking support for a mental health or drug and alcohol issue.

WHAT ARE MY RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES?

To ensure that you get the best outcomes from these services, we ask that you:

- Attend your appointments on time
- Give at least 48 hours notice if you cannot attend an appointment
- Make a follow up appointment with your GP after your last session
- Inform your GP and the service provider if you decide to stop attending

SNPHN would like you to receive the highest quality of care, and remind you that when accessing these services, you have the right to:

- Take part in decisions about your health care
- Have your personal details kept private
- Be treated respectfully
- Receive appropriate care and treatment
- Request to see a different care provider if you feel it is necessary
- A fair enquiry and response into any complaints, without affecting your care
- Provide feedback at any point. You can do this on our website:
