

New Blue Book - Personal Health Record

Learn the Signs Act Early

In the new book PEDS has been replaced by Learn the Signs, Act Early. This is a great change for families and clinicians. Learn about the new updates and resources available for parents, health care providers and early educators.

Presenter: Vicki Laing GP Liaison Nurse: Child and Family Health

Brought to you by the Northern Sydney Nurses Network

Date: Tuesday 10th October 2017

Time: 6.30pm for networking and event starts at approx 7pm.
 Should conclude about 8:30pm.

Light refreshments will be provided at 6:30pm

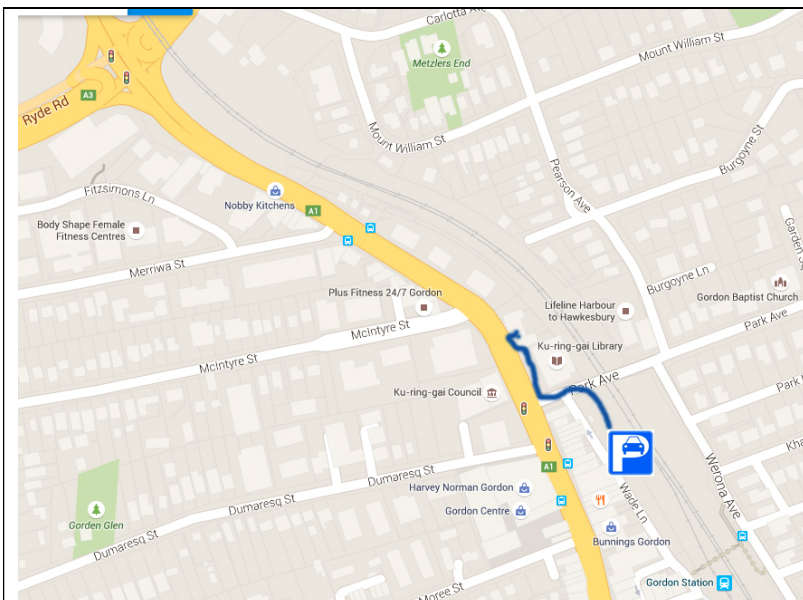

Venue: Ku-ring-gai Libraries, Gordon, Meeting Room 2, corner Pacific Hwy and Park Ave.
Please see directions below

Cost: Free to Northern Sydney Nurses Network Members. Non-members will be invited to join on the night. Membership forms are available on the Website
<http://northernsydneynursesnetwork.com.au>

Membership costs only $20 per year.

RSVP: Thursday 5th Oct 2017: info@northernsydneynursesnetwork.com.au

Please include your full name, mobile number and any dietary requirements

There is ample free parking in the Park Ave council car park. Enter up the ramp, opposite the Police Station

To locate Meeting room 2, walk toward the modern entry of the library, and then detour to the left and walk around the front of the old sandstone school building enter through the second door.

Look out for the NSNN signage.

Northern Sydney Nurses Network

Email: info@northernsydneynursesnetwork.com.au

Website: <http://northernsydneynursesnetwork.com.au>