

SAVE THE DATE

Friday 26th July 2019, 8.30am - 4pm

St John of God & SESLHD Perinatal Infant Mental Health Seminar

Attachment, risk and resilience in the Perinatal period
a Seminar for Primary Care and Mental Health Clinicians

Location - Novotel Sydney Olympic Park NSW

Cost: $190.00 per person plus $25 all day parking

MORNING SPEAKERS

Prof Loyola McLean –Disorganised Attachment – a clinical perspective

Prof Melissa Green : Predicting childhood vulnerability across the spectrum of health, education and social adversity from information known at birth.

SJOG PIMH services: Raphael Services & MBU updates (Dr Alice Dwyer & Carmen Xidis, CNC).

FACS & Vulnerable Families program speakers: a combined Health & FACS approach to working with complex families and their offspring.

Prof Brin Grenyer Helping women with personality disorder to parent their infant.

AFTERNOON INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP:
using case vignettes & video material where possible.

CPD points for AHPRA will be available.
Registration details to follow soon

Contact Filomena Cavallaro 9715 9234 or filomena.cavallaro@sjog.org.au to register your interest