

FREE IN-HOUSE INFORMATION SESSIONS

CONSUMERS

How Reablement & Wellness Can Help You to Stay in Your Home Longer

The FREE in-house Community information session assists consumers to understand how they can benefit from reablement & wellness approaches. The presentation will provide information on:

- What is reablement & wellness
- Benefits of the approach
- How it will impact them

Understanding Consumer Directed Care (CDC)

The FREE in-house Community information session assists consumers to understand Consumer Directed Care (CDC). The presentation will provide information on:

- What is Consumer Directed Care
- How it will affect them
- What they need to do

How to Access Home Care Services

The FREE in-house Community information session assists consumers to understand the changes to aged care services. The presentation will provide information on:

- How to access aged care services
- The different types of services available
- Who is eligible for these services

Understanding Elder Abuse

The FREE in-house Community information session assists consumers to understand elder abuse. This session is available to ALL service providers (not just aged care) located in the Northern Sydney Region

- Understand the different types of abuse
- Your Rights
- Where you can get help

CONTACT US

These free inhouse sessions are available to Commonwealth Home Support (CHSP-funded) and Home Care Package (HCP) service providers located in the Northern Sydney Region. To book, contact Rosanna, Home Support & Partnerships Coordinator.

Email RosannaC@yourside.org.au

