

5 March 2020

TRAUMA INFORMED PRACTICE WORKSHOP

With Mary Jo McVeigh from Cara House

DID YOU KNOW?

Mary Jo is an intrinsically trained trauma therapist and an accredited mental health social worker. She is acknowledged as an expert in the areas of child protection, trauma therapy and leadership coaching.

This invaluable workshop will provide:

- The knowledge, attitude and practical skills required to understand and respond to trauma within families, especially children
- A framework for identifying links between trauma experiences, a range of reactions as well as strengths and protective factors early on
- The human rights approach to trauma informed care
- Professional ethics and a trauma informed approach

05 MARCH

10:00 AM – 4:30 PM

COMMUNITY ROOM

10 Kulgoa Avenue
Ryde NSW 2112

To Register

Contact Vivien Haidig
vivienh@ransw.org.au
Ph: 02 8025 2173

Cost

FREE for community
services industry staff