Sydney North Health Network (SNHN) along with the Australian Practice Nurse Association (APNA) invites members of the Northern Sydney Primary Health Nurses Network to this online networking meeting and update from the Cerebral Palsy Alliance (CPA).

The CPA will discuss the various supports available to families through accessing the Early Childhood Early Intervention (ECEI) pathway, including short term intervention supports, and to give an overview of the referral process to connect with the program.

The meeting will provide a networking opportunity along with an update from the CPA, the NDIS Partner in the Community that works with families in the Northern Sydney region who are concerned about the development of their child. This free service is the first step for families who are wanting to access the NDIS or connect with relevant early childhood services in their local community.

FACILITATOR

Jane Jaworski | Curriculum Leader, Diploma of Nursing, Torrens University

SPEAKERS

Alison O'Toole | Program Manager, Cerebral Palsy Alliance

Renee Giacomini | Community Engagement Officer, Cerebral Palsy Alliance
